Invitation to Shareholders to Propose Questions, Agenda Items and Candidates for Directorship in Advance of AGM

As The Siam Commercial Bank Public Company Limited (the "Bank") has a strong intention to proceed its business under the good corporate governance principle in which the equitable treatment to shareholders is included, the Bank's shareholders are invited to propose the following matters in advance of annual general meeting of shareholders ("AGM"):

1. Questions;
2. Agenda items to be included in the AGM considered as important and beneficial; and
3. Qualified candidates for directorship.

Qualifications of Shareholders Entitled to Submit the Aforementioned Proposals: Being shareholders who have held the Bank's shares for a minimum period of 12 consecutive months prior to the date of submission of the proposal.

Submission Period: 1 October – 31 December 2015

Submission Channels: 1. E-mail: company.secretary@scb.co.th
2. Post: Company Secretary
   Board Secretariat and Shareholder Services Division, 21st Floor, Zone A
   The Siam Commercial Bank Public Company Limited, Head Office
   9 Rutchedapisek Road, Jatujak, Bangkok 10900

Required Documents & Information: To assist the Board of Directors’ (the "Board") consideration of the proposal, the following information is required to be given together with the proposal:
1. The name, address, and telephone number of the shareholder who submits the proposal together with a certified true copy of personal identification card;
2. Document evidencing shareholding period such as share certificates or letters of confirmation issued by a broker;
3. Objectives and details of the proposal to assist the Board's consideration such as fact, rationale, issue at stake, and benefit to the Bank; and
4. As for proposal to nominate candidates for directorship, the personal profile, work experience (CV), address, and telephone number of each of the candidates, and the candidate's written consent to the nomination. Any candidate to be proposed for being a director of the Bank must have appropriate qualifications as required by related laws, i.e. the Financial Institutions Business Act B.E. 2551, the Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535, the Public Limited Companies Act B.E. 2535, including other applicable laws, rules and regulations. (Details on qualifications and prohibited characteristics of a director are as per attachment.)
Process: The Nomination, Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee will consider and screen the shareholders’ proposals, which include questions, agenda items, and candidates for directorship, and propose them to the Board for consideration prior to proceeding with the further steps.

Conditions: The Board has the right to refuse to incorporate the proposal submitted by the shareholder to the Board into the AGM meeting agenda in case of any of the following events:

1. The shareholder is not qualified as an eligible shareholder who is entitled to submit the proposal.
2. The proposal is related to the Bank's ordinary business operations and the fact given by the shareholder does not indicate any reasonable grounds to believe that there is an irregularity or to consider such matter.
3. The proposal is beyond the Bank's power to proceed as proposed.
4. The proposal is the same as that previously submitted to the shareholders' meeting for consideration within the last 12 months and received the supporting votes less than 10% of the total number of the Bank's voting rights, and there is no change in any material respect of the fact pertaining to the proposal.
5. Any other reason which the Board is of the view that it is not necessary to incorporate the proposal into the agenda of the shareholders' meeting where the Board can explain to the shareholders as to such unnecessity.

With respect to the shareholder's proposal to nominate candidates for directorship, the shareholder is required to submit a letter indicating the nominated candidate’s consent to the consideration of his/her qualifications for the election as a director, including related documents, i.e. documentary evidence showing education, training, work experience, etc. The Nomination, Compensation, and Corporate Governance Committee, as part of the screening process, will review the qualifications, experience, knowledge, and abilities of the nominated candidate, including his/her expertise which will be beneficial to the Bank's business, before proposing the nomination to the Board for consideration. The Bank is also required to propose the nominated candidate’s curriculum vitae and qualifications to the Bank of Thailand for endorsement, and to the Securities and Exchange Commission for its qualification review where such nominated candidate must possess the appropriate qualifications as required pursuant to the applicable laws.

Decision Announcement: the Bank’s decision on acceptance of the proposal for agenda items and candidates for directorship will be released after the Board meeting, which will be held during January to February 2016. In case that the Board agreed with the proposed matter, it will be included as an agenda item in the Notice of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders No.193.
