

Conditions for the deposit of savings account with passbook (as shown in passbook)

1. The Bank will provide the depositor a passbook which shall be deemed an important document. The depositor shall keep the passbook in a safe and secure place and shall not give the passbook to the Bank's officer and/or other persons. The Bank shall not be responsible for any losses and damages incurred to the depositor.
2. Please always bring the passbook and identification card when the depositor contacts the Bank.
3. The depositor shall not transfer, amend or tear any sheet of the passbook. In the event that the passbook is damaged or lost, the depositor shall immediately notify the Bank.
4. The Bank will pay the interest to the depositor pursuant to The Siam Commercial Bank Public Company Limited's announcement on 25 June and 25 December.
5. When the passbook records transactions in full, the depositor shall immediately contact the Bank to change the new passbook.
6. This document is the passbook only. It shall not be deemed that the balance shown in the passbook is correct until the depositor provides the passbook to the Bank to record the correct balance.
7. The depositor shall comply with terms and conditions related to this type of deposit in all respects.
8. If the deposit account has been inactive and/or the balance in the account is lower than the amount prescribed by the Bank, the Bank shall have the right to charge fees in accordance with rate and criteria prescribed by the Bank.
9. Making transactions without the passbook over the period prescribed by the Bank, when the depositor brings the passbook to update, the passbook will be shown the combined amount of deposit transactions and withdrawal transactions in one transaction each.
10. The Bank shall have the right to change and/or amend these terms and conditions by announcing at the Bank's website namely www.scb.co.th and/or by other means as the Bank may deem appropriate.
